May Meeting at Studio M Mosaics

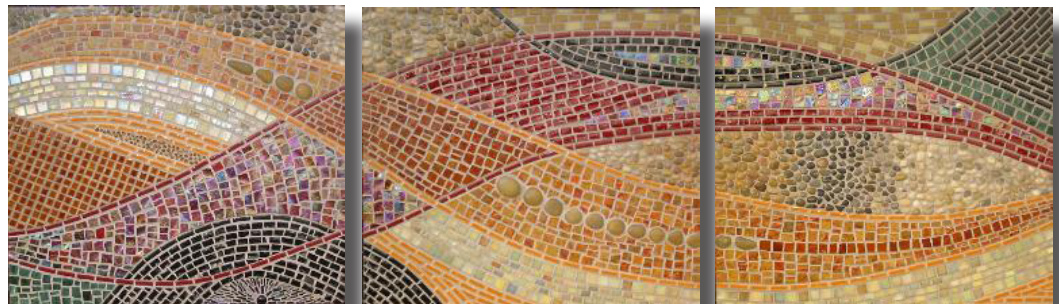

Our monthly meeting, to be held this Monday, May 11, will be a social gathering and demonstration at the studio of member Jill Montgomery. Jill is a mosaic artist whose studio has been featured in the Oregonian for its charm and beauty.

About Jill: "A native Oregonian, I live on a small farm in Oregon City with my husband Todd and our two teenagers Megan and Eric. I love the beautiful Northwest, and spend as much of my free time as possible in the garden and greenhouse. Aside from gardening and spending time with my family, I enjoy collecting vintage pottery and antiques.

In early 2001, I purchased my first book on mosaics: Mosaic Techniques and Traditions, by Sonia King. I read the book over and over again, and then I purchased several more books. It was difficult to satisfy my curiosity of the art. My first project, a birdhouse, was completed in March of 2006, and the obsession took hold."

Jill's address is 15651 S. Carus Rd., Oregon City, phone number is 503.260.7731, or e-mail at jillian@studiommosaics.com. Visit her website studiommosaics.com for a little preview.

This meeting is also an opportunity for open nominations for TRAG's new President-elect. We will meet at 7PM.

Art Rotation at the 221 Molalla Gallery

On Friday, May 1, the artwork at the Oregon City Community Development Division was rotated and new work installed. The new installation will continue through the end of August 2009. All artwork on display is for sale, but must remain on display through the end of the rotation period. Prospective buyers may contact the artists directly. A book with artist bios and business cards is kept at the front desk for those seeking further information.

The current installation is primarily photography-based, along with one weaver. The TRAG artists represented are Mike Wonser, photography; Mary Wonser, weaver; Ingrid Aubry, photography and photo collage; and Ellen Shefi, photography and photo painting. The new exhibit is already getting rave reviews from staff and visitors. The public is welcome to visit the facilities on the second floor at 221 Molalla Avenue.

The gallery is open to TRAG members only. The previous installation was painting and the next installation in September will be a variety of media from fibers to wood, metal and glass. We will be seeking new artists to install the first of September 2009. If you are interested in applying, please contact Lynda Orzen at orzep@bctonline.com.

Main Street Update

Our new Main Street manager Lloyd Purdy has really hit the ground running. Aside from the recent bridge closure and pending closure for several years, his plate for the week of April 27 looked something like this: second meeting of Blue Collar Creative Concept Marketing, funding request to City Hall, Taste of Downtown Video Series at Mi Famiglia, Finish Draft I of Preserve America Grant, Bridge Closure Campaign and Survey Development I and II, Bridge Closure Meeting with downtown business owners, Planning "Bridge Walk" event for downtown business owners, tour of Downtown with Rotary's Filipino Guests, Retail Survey meeting, finalize press release on Downtown Data and Rollout of Retail Survey, and Urban Design Studio visit to Eugene. Did I mention Lloyd is only working part time? The board members of the Main Street committee get one of these updates every week!

Speaking for the Promotions committee (which I co-chair), our work plan includes creating a handout on the Main Street Oregon City program, creating a newsletter or blog site till we have a website established, a "Best of" Award series, the Grand Opening Dedication Ceremony & Community Celebration for the Jon Storm Park Improvements, "Willamette Terrace" and McLoughlin Blvd. Enhancement Phase 1, a Bridge Closure Party, and a First Thursday event. The last was discussed briefly at our last TRAG board meeting.

With all of these promotions and events, the committee is in dire need of more members to share the fun, and, okay, the work! It would be wonderful to get more artistic minds on this committee to facilitate the process of getting more art in the downtown and businesses. If you are interested in attending a meeting for the promotions committee or would like more information, please e-mail me at orzep@bctonline.com. — Lynda Orzen
