

Three Rivers Gallery & Gifts Jurying Considerations

Artwork submitted to the gallery must display creative intent, personal artistic vision, and originality, in addition to mastery of a skill and quality craftsmanship. Items shown in the TRAG gallery must include one or more elements that have been handmade by the artist using raw materials.

Items will not be considered for display in our gallery if:

- * Materials used are of poor quality
- * Items are damaged, unfinished or have sharp edges
- * Finished piece was not made by the artist
- * Public pattern/tutorial was used to create the piece
- * Item knowingly infringes on another person's work even if in a different format or slightly altered
- * Artwork depicts company logos or registered trademarks
- * Artwork depicts a person's likeness without a proper model release
- * Artwork is made entirely of ready-made materials, purchased by the artist and used for their intended purpose without modification
